Kagisano Women's Shelter Project

A Botswana Quaker Project. The only Women's Shelter in the country.

The Kagisano Society Women's Shelter Project changes the lives of women and children affected by domestic violence in Botswana.

Tshireletso Drop-In-Centre for counselling, medical and legal support.

Boikhutsong Shelter, a temporary home for survivors of domestic violence

The Outreach programme: sensitizes and disseminates information:gender based violence, the link between domestic violence and the spread of HIV/AIDS.

The Economic Empowerment programme empowers women with survival and life skills so they can start income generating projects.

The Women's Shelter Project helped 550 individuals affected by violence and ran almost 700 counselling sessions in 2008. The project has big plans to roll out the programme to the rest of the country and to establish a gender-based violence prevention programme together with a couple and perpetrator support programme.
